Preservation for Profit Workshop November 5, 2009, 9:00 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Join Historic Augusta for their Preservation for Profit workshop and learn how investment in a historic building makes good financial sense. Historic Augusta board members Tennent Houston, Paul King, and Bryan Haltermann explain the process of buying, renovating, and leasing historic buildings and how significant tax credits can reduce the cost of rehabilitation by half.

The workshop will take place on Thursday, November 5, 2009 from 9:00 am until 12:15 pm at the Joseph R. Lamar Boyhood Home located at 415 Seventh Street in Augusta. The cost is free for Historic Augusta members and $50 for non-members. An individual membership is included in the cost of registration. Real estate agents receive three hours of continuing education credit.

Space is limited. To register, or for information about other benefits of membership, contact Historic Augusta at (706) 724-0436 or visit www.historicaugusta.org.
