Historic Augusta's Cotton Ball to be held at Lamar-Wallace-Hill House on Tuesday, May 12, 2026

Historic Augusta's Cotton Ball, a tradition in Augusta since 1988, will be held this year on Tuesday, May 12 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The casual affair will take place on the front lawn of the Lamar-Wallace-Hill house, the home of Elsie and Levi Hill, located at 1006 Johns Road in Summerville. The Neoclassic style home was rebuilt in 1905 by the Lamar Family, who had recently returned from Atlanta where Joseph Lamar had served on the Georgia Supreme Court. Justice Lamar was subsequently appointed by President Taft as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Join us for dinner and desserts provided by Bradley's BBQ, music performed by Rae's Creek Revival, a cash bar featuring our famous mint juleps, and an opportunity to mingle in a historic setting!

Admission to the Cotton Ball is by current, new, or renewing membership in Historic Augusta, Inc., which is open to all who are interested in preserving our city's historic places. Memberships start at just $60 for individuals and $100 for family/doubles. Advanced reservations are encouraged.

Proceeds benefit the projects and programs of Historic Augusta, Inc., a nonprofit membership-based organization. The mission of Historic Augusta, Inc. is to preserve historically or architecturally significant structures and sites in Augusta and Richmond County.
